MEN ARE CONFIDENT

Employment of Professional Strike Breakers Is First Move of Roads.

New York, Sept. 8.—Union leaders claimed at noon that 3,500 men were on strike on the subway and elevated roads and 4,000 men on the "green car" system.

When surface cars were started out again at 6 o'clock this morning, the situation was in charge of James T. Waddell, known as the king of strike breakers. Mr. Waddell came here from Chicago last night. He promised to crash the strike in 48 hours.

"I have 3,500 strike breakers here," said Waddell, "and 2,700 of these are now working."

Subway and elevated trains ran last night and this morning as usual.

Thousands Use the Busses.
Thousands yesterday patronized jitney automobiles.

Rumors of a plot to blow up the subway caused the police to watch every underground station.

The strike thus far, according to Waddell, has cost the traction company $200,000.

With subway and elevated trains being operated apparently on normal schedule, traction officials insisted today that the strike has been broken. Fifty per cent of the "green cars" of the New York Railway company's surface system were running, the company announced, and police department reports indicated that the walkout was not having a widespread effect.

WOMEN LEARNING
ALL ABOUT VOTINGGuard of Honor to Receive President Wilson On Board Walk at Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 8.—Delegates to the National American Woman Suffrage association in convention here, who say they expect to be enfranchised before many years have passed, are taking time by the forelock and are learning how to vote.

In electing their national officers the delegates are following much the same plan of states where there are state wide primary laws. The women are using voting machines. With the exception of three officers who have announced they will retire, all the present officers expect to be reelected. So far as can be learned, Mrs. Catt has no opposition for president. It is said Mrs. Walter McNab Miller of Columbia, Mo., will be elected first vice president to succeed Mrs. Frank M. Roosevelt of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Smith of Kentucky, is said to be the probable successor of Mrs. Miller as first auditor.

One of the principal matters before the convention today was the resolution declaring that the passage of the federal amendment through congress is the paramount object of the association.

Plans have been completed for receiving President Wilson tonight. A guard of honor made up of one delegate from each state will be lined up to greet him when he reaches the board walk theater, where he will deliver an address.

The convention today defeated by an overwhelming vote a resolution that the association in the present national campaign support only those candidates for national offices who pledge their support to the passage of a federal constitutional amendment. The resolution was offered by Mrs. Raymond Robins of Chicago and a number of other delegates.

HUGHES MAY FIRE
CAMPAIGN PILOT"Get Busy or Get Out" Is Ultimatum
Republican Candidate Is Said to Have Delivered.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Spurred to exasperation by the series of "frosts" on his disappointing campaign tour, Charles E. Hughes summoned William R. Wilcox, chairman of the republican national committee and told him in effect "to get busy or get out."

Immediately those close to Hughes, who have view his increasing chagrin at his reception by the west, pressed and in his stead Frank H. Hitchcock would step in to try to "pepper" the campaign.

Wilcox arrived and immediately went into conference with Hughes. Wilcox denied that he would be frozen out. Hughes would not discuss his reported dissatisfaction with his manager. Members of the party that has followed Hughes from the Atlantic to the Pacific and half way back, declared that it was generally felt in the party that Hughes is impatient at the way the campaign has been conducted, and called Wilcox directly to meet him and "get down to brass tacks."

It is an open secret that the Hughes trip has been a "frost." Members of the candidate's party admit that "grievous mistakes" had been made, and, privately, are inclined to blame the national committee's direction of the trip.

The embarrassment caused the candidate in Washington by the "Perkins-Poindexter run" and the Johnson episode in California is laid at the door of Chairman Wilcox, according to members of the candidate's party.

At their conference Wilcox reportedly told Hughes he was disappointed at the arrangement for his western tour and believed the difficulties in Washington and California might have been avoided if there had been more cooperation from the national committee.

KILLS WIFE TO
SAVE HER SOULPettit's Confession of Murder Sets Up Theory of "Spiritual" Marriage Relations.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Details of the "spiritual" promptings which caused him to slay his child-wife, to "save her soul," are contained in a confession said to have been obtained from J. Maurice Pettit, the former Cedar Rapids, Iowa, bank cashier, in jail here today. The alleged confession was made public by the state's attorney's office. The murder of Mrs. Pettit occurred on Aug. 31.

In the confession Pettit is quoted as saying that when he married in the early part of the year he expected to live with his wife on a "spiritual plane," but that his mother-in-law later had hinted to him that if he expected to continue on that theory, instead of a normal husband and wife relationship, his wife might seek other company. From that time on, the confession reads, though his wife was a "pure woman," he had "attacks" of jealous fits, in one of which he cut the throat of his wife and left her lying dead while he fled the house.

According to the confession, Pettit sought to kill himself on a farm near Detroit, where he was captured, and that he yet hoped to end his life so he could join his bride "spiritually."

QUOTES TAFT ON
MEXICAN POLICYWhat Former President Said Is Right in Line With Wilson's Work in Mexico.

Washington, Sept. 8.—In a speech today defending the Mexican policy of President Wilson, Representative Harrison of Mississippi, democrat, read to the house a telegram President Taft sent to the governor of Arizona on April 18, 1911, saying that it was impossible to "foresee or reckon the consequences" of intervention, and that "we must use the greatest self-restraint to avoid it."

"I approve that sentiment of President Taft," said Mr. Morrison, and he demanded of Representative Denison of Illinois, republican, who had interrupted him, "if he did not also approve."

Mr. Denison said he "approved that," but declared that the cases of President Taft and President Wilson were different; that the former's policy was a temporary one, and the latter's a permanent one.

Mr. Harrison insisted that the same conditions confronted President Wilson as confronted President Taft and that the former had followed the same policy that the latter had followed.

WILSON SIGNS BILLS

Democrats Ably Defend $1,- 626,439,210 Passed in Appropriations.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Congress adjourned sine die this morning at 10 o'clock evening session, a record breaking in many respects, with appropriations and authorizations for the future running well toward two billion dollars.

In a statement issued following the adjournment of congress, President Wilson called attention to the "helpful and humane legislation" passed, and declared that while he regretted additional legislation dealing with the recent dispute between the railroads and their employees had not been completed, he had every reason to believe the question would be taken up immediately after congress reassembled.

Congress at the session closed today appropriated exactly $1,626,439,210 which, with obligations and authorizations for the future makes the total $1,858,384,485.

These figures, announced in speeches by Representatives Fitzgerald, New York, democrat, and Gillett, Massachusetts, republican, were defended by the former and attacked by the latter as having a billion dollars greater than any session of a republican congress.

Leaders Watch Wind-Up.
When the house convened at 8:30 a. m., Speaker Clark, Democratic Leader Kitchin, Republican Leader Mann and a small number of both sides were on the floor to watch the wind-up.

Speaker Clark and Republican Leader Mann exchanged the usual felicitations. Speaker Clark, addressing the house, referred to the session of congress as a long, tedious and laborious session.

"No session of congress in my recollection," he said, "stayed in session so many days and worked so many hours."

Busy Day for President.
Washington, Sept. 8.—To complete the work incidental to the adjournment of congress, President Wilson was up early today signing bills, executive orders and commissions which he desired to dispose of before leaving for Atlantic City at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The president will arrive at Atlantic City shortly after 5 p. m. today and will spend the night at the convention of the National Woman's Suffrage association.

Soon after the president reached the capitol the revenue bill was ready for his signature. President Wilson signed the emergency revenue bill at 9:25 o'clock in the presence of Senator Simmons, chairman of the financial committee and Representative Rainey, of the ways and means committee.

The president held a reception in his room as a line of senators and representatives passed through while he sat at the table signing bills. To Senator Simmons the president expressed gratification over the passage of the revenue bill. He said, however, that he greatly regretted the failure of the Webb bill to provide for the establishment of American collective selling agencies in foreign countries.

The president also signed the $20 widows' pension bill.

At 9:30 o'clock the senate appointed Senators Kern and Smoot to notify the president that congress was ready to adjourn unless he had some further business to present. They were joined by Representative Rainey, in Fitzgerald and Mann, the house committee and the joint committee waited on the president at 9:35 a. m. The president congratulated the leaders on the opportunity for a "well earned rest." Officially he informed them he had nothing further to communicate to congress.

Senator Kern notified the senate at 9:55 o'clock that the president had nothing further to communicate. Thereupon Senator Nelson of Minnesota offered a resolution of thanks to the president.
